

Lectures

Table of contents

1 Lectures.....	2
2 Presentations.....	2
3 Reports.....	2

1. Lectures

Bugs, isotopes, magnets, and orbits: the Earth's clock Cinzia Cervato's powerpoint slides on Geologic Time that were presented to the National Science Teachers Association.

2. Presentations

Geochemical Earth Reference Model (GERM) workshop in Lyon (France), May 20-23, 2003. .CHRONOS Network for Earth System History and the Geochemical-cycles-through time node. presented by Ethan Grossman , TAMU. click here for abstract

Geological Society of America, Annual Meeting, Seattle, Washington, November 2-5, 2003. Lecture presentation: CHRONOS NETWORK FOR EARTH SYSTEM HISTORY: DEVELOPMENT OF INTEGRATED DATABASES AND TOOLKITS ACCESSIBLE THROUGH A COMMON PORTAL. Click here for abstract and time and location of presentation.

International Symposium on Modern Computing, Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa, October 30 - November 1, 2003. Student Poster Presentation. Download poster as PDF here

3. Reports

CHRONOS Founding Workshops Report The CHRONOS network system was conceived by scientists at two workshops (2001 and 2002 - see workshop report) as an international network to assemble, integrate and distribute data relevant to earth history.

CHRONOS handout Progress report on CHRONOS - July 2004